Letter No. A2-57/31-32 d/14.11.1932 from the Dist. Edl. Officer, Tuticorin soliciting instructions in the matter of filling up vacancies caused by the resignation of recruits soon after joining their appointments.

(1) Kind attention is invited to the instructions contained in Rule 25 of the Recruitment Manual, issued with a view to remove the inconvenience to work in offices caused by the resignation of recruits soon after joining their appointments. It is for orders if vacancies caused by such resignation have to be dealt with afresh in the usual course or if another candidate from the original list of applications forwarded by the concerned may be selected and appointed. The question of readvertisement does not arise in such cases as another candidate is not appointed, the vacancy has to be treated as a fortuitous one. Vide Rule 23 of the same Manual. Submitted for orders.

(2) If the candidate resigns, after joining duty, within a fortnight, some other candidate from the list may perhaps be attained, with a view, so as to avoid the loss of time involved in advertising vacancy once again.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that candidates seeking appointments often apply for two or more vacancies advertised in the Mysore Gazette. They accept appointments which they get first, but leave it as soon as they get a more convenient one.

I request to be instructed whether such vacancies could be filled up again by selecting another candidate from the original list forwarded from your office or whether the vacancies have to be advertised again and filled up, since clauses 'E' and 'F' of section (14) of the manual of Recruitment Rules are not clear.

I have the honour to be
